KINNISSONS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kinness entertained at their home Sunday with a prettily appointed dinner party. Pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern formed a centerpiece for the dining table at which covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Wing, Mrs. Rose Richards and Miss Lyla Rose Richards of Orange. Bridge furnished entertainment for the afternoon.

ORVILLE HUDSON, JR., ENTERTAINS
The 20th birthday of Orville Hudson, Jr. was the occasion for an informal stag party at his home on Andrea avenue when he entertained Saturday evening. Bridge furnished entertainment after which a buffet supper was served. Bridge awards were received by Gus Oetken, Benny Lepkin, while a consolation was awarded Harold Hooker. Guests included Cliff and Charles Ruppel, Harold Hooker, Harold Clark, Potest McKinley, La. Dorn Hall, Benny Lepkin, Gordon Bau, Ralph Harder, Nord Lewis, Arnold Campbell and Howard Hudson.

CLUB WOMEN ATTEND RECIPROCALITY PROGRAM
Torrance Woman's Club was well represented at a reciprocity program given by the Women of the Golden West when they entertained at the Ambassador Hotel Friday. Washington's birthday was observed in a patriotic pageant after which dainty refreshments were served. Present from Torrance were Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. Archer Lewis, Mrs. A. W. Meinzer, Mrs. William Locke and Mrs. O. W. Hudson.

W. B. A.'S ENJOY SOCIAL MEETING
More than 20 members of the W. B. A. were present at a social meeting at the home of Mrs. H. E. Reeve, 918 Cota avenue, when she entertained Tuesday evening. At this meeting Mrs. Esther Butler was initiated. Questionnaires and fortunes told from taracups furnished entertainment. The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse Tuesday, March 8.

TORRANCE CLUB REPRESENTED AT SIERRA MADRE
Last Wednesday, Mrs. Caroling Collins attended a reciprocity program at Sierra Madre Woman's Club of which she is a charter member. She was accompanied by Mrs. N. F. Jamieson. Following luncheon a delightful musical program was presented featuring home talent of that city. Mrs. Collins enjoyed renewing acquaintances with old time friends.

MR. AND MRS. MURPHY ENTERTAIN AT DINNER
The 29th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Los Angeles, parents of Mrs. Veloura Murphy, and also the birthdays of her twin sister and brother, Faye Marie and Albert Lee, provided the incentive for a delightfully intimate dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Murphy on Anapola avenue, Wednesday evening. The beautifully appointed dinner table was centered with a bouquet of yellow jonquills and orchid and yellow sweet peas. Covers were placed for 12, and guests included members of the immediate family.

POLLY ANNS ENJOY CONTRACT PARTY
Members of the Polly Anns Bridge Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. F. B. Dilley, 6562 Arlington avenue, Los Angeles, when they enjoyed an afternoon of instruction in contract bridge Tuesday. An attractively appointed luncheon was served at noon to Mesdames W. C. Andrus, Harry Alcorn, Frank Mineck, Thomas Kendrick, Paul Kasper, George Watson, Thomas Edmonds, W. C. Dolley, John Gwan, A. W. Johnson, O. W. Hudson and A. W. Meinzer.

AMERICAN LEGION TO GIVE SERIES OF DANCES
Bert S. Crossland Post, American Legion, will sponsor a series of dances to be given at Torrance Woman's clubhouse, 1432 Encarnacion avenue, on the first Saturday of each month. The first dance will be given Saturday evening March 5, at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Tom Ulrich and his orchestra. Everyone is invited. Come but and help make these dances of community interest.

P. E. CHERIO CLUB NOTES
The home of Mrs. Harry Pierce on Anapola provided the setting for an attractive party when 26 members of the P. E. Cherio Club and eight guests were entertained Friday evening. Mrs. Pierce was assisted by Mrs. Fielder of Los Angeles. Guessing games were featured and a mock wedding was enjoyed honoring Mrs. Frank Miller, president of the club. Many congratulatory messages were received by Mrs. Miller on this, her 30th wedding anniversary. The Washington motif was carried out in accessories and a buffet supper was served at the close of the program.

PERFECT CAKE from the Ventilated Oven of a New Natural Gas Range
Bake in the ventilated oven of a new natural gas range and note the appearance, taste, and texture of foods. Color is rich and appetizing. Freshness is retained... Flavor is enhanced.
Good baking is automatic with the new natural gas ranges. The Oven Heat Regulator keeps oven temperature at the exact point you select for cooking. Oven watching is unnecessary. Your clock tells you when cooking is completed. Ovens are insulated for kitchen comfort, as well as economy.
See the display of your dealer or gas company, and look for the Blue Star Seal of the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory on the range you buy.
